Introduction

We, the members of the Devilaire Staff, are proud to take this opportunity to introduce you to the 1969 Devilaire. We have added several new pages and changed the entire look of the year-book in hopes of making it distinctive to Laura Conner High School. There have been long, hard hours of work put into this project and we hope it will bring back many happy memories whenever it is read.

We would also like to express our appreciation to our sponsor, Mr. Joe Wilson, for the help and advice he has given us in the past months, starting with the Yearbook Workshop and ending with the day our new Devilaire was presented to you, the student body.

Now we are very happy to present to you our 1969 Devilaire.

Editor,

Susan

In Memoriam

The Deviliare Staff of 1968-69 feels that this page should properly be dedicated to the memory and the life of Mr. A. G. "Jelly" Porter Jr. As president of the School Board, Mr. "Jelly" did much for the youth of Augusta. Most of his efforts went without fanfare, as he wanted it. But his example and his contributions to the entire community will never be forgotten.

Dedication

There are very few things that can be done to adequately express the appreciation felt for a person who has dedicated her entire adult life to the education of young people. Mrs. Jones is such a person.

Her constant concern for her individual students and her efforts to help them have been inspirational to not only students but other teachers as well. The Devilaire Staff is pleased to use this dedication as their way of saying "Thanks, Mrs. Jones."

Summertime And Living Is Easy

IN SUMMER

Oh, summer has clothed the earth
In a cloak from the loom of the sun!
And a mantle, too, of the skies'
soft blue,
And a belt where the rivers run.

And now for the kiss of the wind,
And the touch of the air's soft
hands,
With the rest from strife and the heat of life,
With the freedom of lakes and lands.

Superintendent's Message

If Democracy is to be made to function to the fullest, it must be practiced at every opportunity, and especially in our public schools. Since the fundamental aim of the school is to prepare its students for democratic living, the school should exemplify that way of live.

If we are consistent with this philosophy, it will cause our schools to be stronger, because employees, teachers, and students will be more cooperative and work together for the best of all concerned.

During 196* the Junior Red Devils football team completed their third consecutive undefeated season. The team, under the leadership of Coach George Jones, underwent an abbreviated schedule with three wins, no losses, and two scoreless ties. However, the injuries to key men weakened the overall strength of the team. 1969 should prove to be another successful year for our Junior Red Devils.

The Outstanding Teenagers awards program begins on the high school level. To be eligible for a state award, national award and scholarship, the teenager must have been nominated by his principal. The principal gets advice from the faculty in nominating the three Outstanding Teenagers from his school. Then one winner is chosen by the non-profit Outstanding Americans Loundation for the state Governor's Prophy. The two National Outstanding Teenagers of America are chosen from the 50 state winners. Lach of the two national winners receives a $1,000 college scholarship.

Connie Bowie

The \merica's Junior Miss Pageant, Inc. is a non-profit organization which annually honors the nation's ideal high school senior girls and rewards these outstanding young ladies with national recognition and with scholarships for the furtherance of their education. The objectives envisioned by the founders of the America's Junior Miss Pageant required three important parts to stimulate the imagination of not just exceptional, but all teen-age girls" 1. a goal 2. a framework 3. an incentive. The goal is the establishment of an ideal . . . the point of development of the whole girl to which all could aspire. The framework is the pageantry - the selection process. The incentives are the scholarships . . . the rewards of accomplishment.

EMBROIDERED SNOW

All through the night, the thick white sky Fell softly, till the drifts heaped high At dawn, there lay o'er hill and plain A vast unblemished counterpane. Perfection For a second's span Then, the embroidering began,

Long stitches from a hound's swift feet,
With rabbit scuttling in retreat.
Spots, 'neath the hemlock, edged in lace
Where low-hung branches trace . . . retrace
Faint dainty rufflings by a tree.
As small wood-folk hold revelry.

Then, sewn with shining silver strand,
Sled runner tracks form ribbon bands,
Slant rows of double feather stitch
Where children waded across a ditch.
White scallops, where the brisk winds blow
All nature's embroidery on God's snow.
